

RECYCLING MODULES

The Recycling Modules are a great solution for collecting different material streams and fit comfortably into any office environment.

A bright range of module containers allow colour coded source separation of materials to encourage recycling.

Ideal where space is at a premium, the modules will stack vertically or horizontally.

Typically used as communal recycling sites, each module contains an easily removable bucket with a rigid carry handle.

